

Clarence's Obit was taken from The Everett Herald in 1994

Clarence W. Bunney 92, died Oct 21, 1994 in Svenson, Oregon.

He was born on August 4, 1902 in Ebro, Minnesota the son of Lawrence and Myrtle (Goodwater) Bunney. He married Agnes Moe on April 24, 1925. Mr. Bunney grew up and attended school in Ebro, Minnesota. He later moved to Minot, North Dakota where he remained until 1936 then moved his family to Everett, Washington. During WWII, Mr. Bunney was a contractor involved in extending the runways for many of the Northwest military bases. For several years, he owned and operated a restaurant in Silver Lake, Washington. Mr. Bunney also worked as an excavator on many of the structures in and around Everett, Washington. Mr. Bunney moved to Svenson, Oregon in 1989 after the death of his wife Agnes.

He is survived by two daughters: Pat (Fritz) Just and Marlene (Stanley) Dick both of Winthrop, Washington. Two sons: Wilmer (Mable) Bunney of Vancouver, Washington and Merlyn (Sofie) Bunney of Svenson, Oregon. A brother Daniel J. Bunney of Snohomish, Washington. 11 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren.

Mr. Bunney was preceded in death by his wife Agnes. Three brothers: Elmer, Leon and David Bunney. Two sisters: Blanche and Hazel Bunney. His grandson, Richard Bunney.

Private family services and private internment in Everett, Washington.